Attention of All Faculties / Students are hereby informed that the letter No.NCHM-10101/1/2022-ADMIN, dated 19th December 2022 received from Director (A&F) regarding information about National Council Library Network (NCLN) through official website (www.nchmct.gov.in).

The NCLN library network has three major sections:

- (i) Physical Section: Physical section is maintained through e-granthalaya of NIC in which all the library books available in the Library are registered. One can get the current status of any of the books and its availability to visit NCHM library and to get a required book.
- (ii) Digital Library: The digital library section is having three sub-sections. First sub-section is Standard Teaching Material, which is the creation of the expert teachers and standardized by the concerned HoDs or experts of NCHMCT, are being placed. It is a downloadable document and can help the teachers as well as students of various IHMs. Second sub-section is Video Module, which is linked to the youtube channel of NCHMCT. Where all the video classes developed by the IHMs, NCHM and ICI during the Covid period have been displayed. It also have open access and one can get benefitted of these videos which have been made according to the NCHMCT syllabus. Third sub-section is Digital Book/Journal, where all the research publications done by NCHMCT or other IHMs including the journals and books are kept. It is also having public access and one can be benefitted through it.
- (iii) E-books and Journals: This section is displaying the e-books and journals subscribed by NCHMCT for the Library. Since the e-books and journals are subscription based documents and accessible through the computer registered with IP address at the publishers end, the public can view a look of the cover page of the Book/Journal and index of the Book/Journal to know about the detailed content available in it. On getting the index detail, one can visit E-section of the library to get access of the entire book.

The above facilities can be utilized by students, faculty and staff of the Institute.
